PATIENT CENTERED
ORTHOPEDIC CARE

Joseph C. McGinley, MD, PhD:

The Latest in Orthopedic Care with a Patient Centered Approach

At The McGinley Clinic, we believe the future of medicine lies in prevention and the integration of cutting-edge technologies for minimally invasive treatments. Our clinic boasts a range of advanced diagnostic tools and state-of-the-art equipment. We will provide a comprehensive list of preventative health measures and recommendations for optimal health. The McGinley Team lead by Dr. McGinley, a Sports Medicine Stanford trained Musculoskeletal Interventionalist, will complete a full orthopedic assessment and review your studies in detail.

Jen Galloway, FNP-C: Primary and Functional Medicine

Jen Galloway, a highly experienced Nurse Practitioner, specializes in functional and preventive medicine and is passionate about promoting optimal health. With a focus on early detection and disease prevention, Jen plays a crucial role in our executive health screening program. She conducts thorough assessments, evaluates risk factors, and designs personalized health plans to help you achieve your wellness goals. Jen's expertise and compassionate care make her an invaluable asset to our team.

Wind City Physical Therapy: Enhancing Mobility and Well-Being
